As part of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act we provide, job training and placement to low income migrant and seasonal farmworkers throughout Northern California. We have provided this service since 1975 and have placed thousands of farworkers into permanent, non-seasonal jobs. We also operate three training centers that provide hands on vocational training in areas such as truck driving and welding. Our primary partners in this effort are the U S Department of Labor, California's One-Stop System, La Cooperativa de California, the many employers that hire our trainees and numerous local non profit and public partners that help ensure that our services are effective and holistic. We have an exciting partnership with Habitat for Humanity in San Joaquin County that allows our construction trainees to demonstrate their skills on real jobs that result in affordable housing for low-income families. Additionally, we are interested in supporting training initiatives that will help customers start their own businesses including micro enterprise development. Continued on Schedule O

Community & Energy Services - This division is primarily funded by the federal Community Services Block Grant, (CSBG) a program derived out of the 1964 War on Poverty. The intent of CSBG is to develop and support local initiatives targeting community needs that are under represented in the current delivery system within local communities. CHD's Community Services Division(CSD) is dedicated to strengthening our communities and helping our region's at risk residents achieve and maintain safer, healthier and more productive lives. The CSD is home to a number of localized and unique services including residential and outpatient substance abuse treatment programs, naturalization and citizenship assistance and local, grass-roots day labor centers. All of the programs under the CSD provide a holistic approach to addressing the needs of families and the needs of communities. Innovative and established methods are utilized in delivering services which enhance the outcomes reached by the various programs and play an essential role in supporting fragile communities. Additionally, our sister agency, North Bay Human Development Corporation (NBHDC), an entity specifically created with the aim of owning properties, owns a 100 unit senior HUD 202 financed project Parkway Plaza in Fairfield. There are currently a total of 4 properties under CHD management. Additionally, CHD manages 180 beds of seasonal housing in three farmworker housing Centers in Napa. Form 990, Part III, Line 4a: Continued from Part III Line 4a Additionally, we also help people with disABILITIES realize their full potential as adults and become productive, engaged members of their community. We begin our relationship with consumers by asking what each individual desires and needs; we then develop a support plan to reach these goals. We ensure that each individual and family members is a fully engaged and active participant in developing a personalized plan and in making choices for his or her own life. In 1983, we received one of the first grants in California to provide supported employment through the Department of Rehabilitation and, since this time, have been successfully placing and providing ongoing support to individuals and small groups in competitive jobs. We also partner with North Bay Regional Center, Santa Rosa Junior College and many local businesses to help adults with disABILITIES make their dreams become their realities.

population as partners. We provide home weatherization and energy conservation services and energy efficiency measures to low income households throughout Sonoma, Napa, and Mendocino counties. Our community partners are essential to the successful delivery of these services.
